She Doesn't Flirt.

Words and Music by HARRY MOORE.
Author of "Sweet Nora Doore."

The piano introduction consists of two staves. The right hand plays a series of eighth notes in a descending pattern, while the left hand provides a steady accompaniment of chords and eighth notes.

Her eyes are like the vio-lets hue, Her face is like the rose, And A coun-try rube came in one day, To give the town a whirl, He

The first line of the song features a vocal melody in the treble clef and piano accompaniment in the bass clef. The melody is simple and catchy, with a clear emphasis on the lyrics.

ev - ery mash - er smiles at her As through the town he goes, For swaggered up and down the street And spied the dum-my girl; He

The second line of the song continues the vocal melody and piano accompaniment. The lyrics describe a man's behavior in town, with a humorous tone.
